

THE FACTS BEHIND ONE OF WRESTLING'S GREATEST LEGENDS!

Rosa: HER OWN STORY

Rosa, or the Contessa as she is known to her adoring fans, remains an enigma despite her many years as a United Federation of Wrestlers star. Some say she is the love child of secret gay lovers El Santo and the Blue Demon. Others say she was found and raised by a pack of wolves from Daly City. Only one thing is certain: she is undoubtedly one of the most feared competitors in the world of wrestling!

Rosa's troubles started during a recent UFW Title Match. Her opponent, Crusher, although no match for the stronger Contessa, often cheated to gain advantage!

Miss Know-It-All

Dear Readers,

After I was (unfairly) disqualified by that rotten ref during my title fight with Crusher the Coward, my life hasn't been the same. I was suspended from the Pro-Wrestling circuit until the UFW reviews my case. Last month the National Inquisitor approached me about writing an advice column and since times are tough and my lawyers don't work pro bono, I agreed. I just want to make it perfectly clear that I do not have a drug problem, and no, Betty Ford does not have a bed on "stand-by" for me. That said, I invite you to send me letters asking about anything from love advice to stain removal! Send e-mail to misknomer@aol.com.

Dear Miss Know-It-All,

I'm in desperate need of plastic surgery, but I can't afford it on my salary as a flight-attendant. Any suggestions?

Flatchested in France

Dear Chester,

Often the answer is right under one's nose. Take your busom and fly to Caracas. While vacationing in the country boasting the largest number of Miss Unverses, you can have yourself "augmented" in the foremost Institute of Plastic Surgery, the Plastic Surgery Institute, or el Instituto de Cirujia Plastico. Insist on local anesthesia. What may begin as a boob-job could wind up as gender reassignment.

Dear Miss Know-It-All,

How do I stop my boyfriend from looking at other men?
Jealous

Dear Jealous,

Rosa confronts photographers in her dressing room after the fight. Her manager, Kat Man-Du, later denied rumors that the Contessa has a serious drug problem.

Rosa was certain to win the UFW Championship Belt until the referee disqualified her during the fifteenth round over accusations of steroid use!
